UNCLOUDY DAY

Oh, they tell me of a home far beyond the skies
Oh, they tell me of a home far away
Oh, they tell me of a home where no storm clouds rise
Oh, they tell me of an unclouded day

Oh, the land of cloudless day
Oh, the land of an unclouded sky
Oh, they tell me of a home where no storm clouds rise
Oh, they tell me of an unclouded day

Oh, they tell me of a home where my friends have gone
Oh, they tell me of that land far away
Where the tree of life in eternal bloom
Sheds its fragrance through the unclouded day

Oh, the land of cloudless day
Oh, the land of an unclouded sky
Oh, they tell me of a home where no storm clouds rise
Oh, they tell me of an unclouded day

Oh, they tell me of a King in His beauty there
And they tell me that mine eyes shall behold
Where He sits on the throne that is whiter than snow
In the city that is made of gold

Oh, the land of cloudless day
Oh, the land of an unclouded sky
Oh, they tell me of a home where no storm clouds rise
Oh, they tell me of an unclouded day

Oh, they tell me that He smiles on His children there
And His smile drives their sorrows all away
And they tell me that no tears ever come again
In that lovely land of unclouded day

Oh, the land of cloudless day
Oh, the land of an unclouded sky
Oh, they tell me of a home where no storm clouds rise

OBITUARY

Christine Agnes Harvin, affectionately known as Chrissy, was born on April 30, 1969 to the union of Laura and Alvin Harvin at Beth Israel Hospital in New York. She is the youngest of six children.

Christine was baptized and confirmed at her family's place of worship, St. Augustine's Episcopal Church.

She received her formal education at Seward Park High School and the Borough of Manhattan Community College.

During her high school years, she played the clarinet and became an avid lover of all genres of music. Her favorite artist was Sting and one of her all-time favorite songs by him was Seven Days. Christine was also fond of the arts. She liked to go to plays and she could sing very well.

She enjoyed fine dining at different restaurants while spending time with friends. She had a love for cooking. Her most famous dishes came out of the multicultural cuisine of Trinidad & Tobago and the Caribbean. She liked to go to The Village and take strolls to Washington Square Park. She also liked to travel. Chrissy had a peculiar sense of humor, but she was also a loving, kind and tender-hearted person.

Chrissy spent most of her time caring for small children as a Day Care school teacher.

In the summer of 1994, while shopping at Kozy Corner, Chrissy met her life partner, Eian D.J. Williams who preceded her in death. From this union were born Yasmin Elaina and Ian Kumar Williams. They enjoyed twenty-two blissful years together where they spent most of their time in Brooklyn, and later moved to Harlem.

Sadly, on Saturday, September 5, 2020, God called Chrissy home to His heavenly kingdom.

Christine Agnes Harvin leaves to mourn: Mother, Laura. Brothers: Alvin Jr. (Lillian, wife), James and Darryl (Cheryl, fiancé). Sisters: Alicia, Teresa (Darryl, husband). Children: Yasmin, Ian, and India Rose (granddaughter). Uncles: Herman and Barry. Aunts: Lorraine and Christina. Nephews: Lyndon (Jynette, wife), Justin (Dorri, wife), Darryl Jr. (Elisa, fiancé), and Andre. Nieces: Melina, Gabrielle, Sharlene and Gillian. As well as a host of other family, friends and many loved ones.

Family Appreciation and Acknowledgement

The Harvin family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
